Raymarine LightHouse Charts Now Available with New Chart Store and RayConnect Mobile App

The LightHouse Charts Suite Offers New Level of Clarity in Marine Navigation, Premium Options, and an Enhanced/Better Customer Experience

ARLINGTON, Va. – March 2, 2020 – FLIR Systems (NASDAQ: FLIR) announced today the availability of Raymarine LightHouse™ Charts cartography, bringing new levels of clarity and control to marine navigation. Further, LightHouse Charts customers will realize increased convenience and enhanced product purchase and delivery options via the new Raymarine Chart Store and RayConnect mobile app.

New Raymarine LightHouse Charts are crafted from trusted, official hydrographic sources – the same data used by maritime professionals. LightHouse Charts offer Raymarine users a new level of clarity, customization, and detail, making it easy to identify, navigate to, and explore on-shore destinations, fishing spots, and other points-of-interest (POI).

Engineered for both recreational and professional applications, LightHouse Charts allow captains to switch between an official government-style chart presentation or an information-rich leisure chart view. Captains can also choose between four chart colour pallets optimised for bright sun, daylight, dusk, and nighttime conditions. Raymarine users can also take advantage of a LightHouse Premium subscription to access continuous chart updates, an expanded POI library powered by Marinas.com and Reeds, as well as enhanced satellite imagery from Mapbox.

A new, online Raymarine Chart Store is accessible through the link below. LightHouse Charts can also be downloaded on the new RayConnect mobile app available on the App Store™ and Android™ devices. These make it easy to purchase LightHouse Charts, download updates, and sync premium content with Raymarine Axiom® Multifunction Displays (MFD)s and Raymarine Element™ Sonar/GPS displays.

“Our new LightHouse Chart catalog gives boaters an exciting, powerful, and sophisticated new choice for marine navigation,” says Gregoire Outters, General Manager for the Raymarine brand at FLIR. “Available premium features further elevate the navigational experience, adding unlimited chart updates and graphically-rich POI information and detailed satellite imagery, all delivered seamlessly and on-demand via web or mobile device.”

New LightHouse Charts are available now with the purchase of any new Axiom+ MFD. The LightHouse Charts catalog is also available for purchase separately at <https://www.chartstore.raymarine.eu>, starting at £145.00/ € 145.00 and includes full-country charts coverage, tides, and animated currents. As an introductory offer, purchasers will also receive a complimentary one-year LightHouse Premium subscription enabling them to enjoy additional features free of charge.
